20th & 21st JUNE 2026

Brilliant Convention Centre Indore (M.P.)

WELCOME
CHIEF GUEST

Dr. M B Agrawal

It is with immense pride, deep respect, and heartfelt gratitude that I welcome our esteemed mentor, Professor Dr. M. B. Agrawal, to the Central India Haematology Summit VI – 2026 here in Indore.

For me, this is not merely a formal welcome—it is a deeply personal moment. Dr. Agrawal has been more than a guide; he has been a mentor, an inspiration, and a strong pillar throughout my journey in hematology and bone marrow transplantation. His remarkable contributions to the field and his dedication to teaching have shaped countless careers and continue to inspire us all. Over the past five years, we have had the privilege of hosting him, and each time, his presence has elevated the academic depth and spirit of this conference. His insights and wisdom continue to guide us toward excellence in patient care.

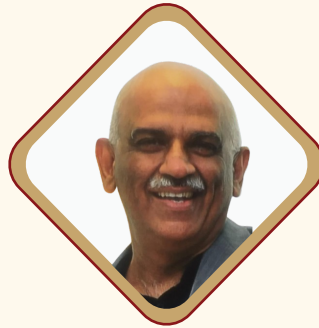

As we gather for this sixth edition at the Brilliant Convention Center, we are truly honored to have him with us once again. On behalf of the organizing committee and all delegates, I extend my warmest welcome to you, Sir. Indore is privileged to host you once again.

ABOUT

- ◆ Indore is one of the fastest-growing cities in central India and is widely known for its perfect blend of tradition and modernity. Located in the state of Madhya Pradesh, Indore serves as a major commercial, educational, and cultural hub. It has consistently ranked as the cleanest city in India under the Swachh Survekshan initiative, reflecting its strong civic sense and efficient urban management.

Historically, Indore was part of the Holkar Dynasty, and its legacy is still visible in architectural landmarks like the beautiful Rajwada Palace and Lal Bagh Palace. These sites attract tourists who are interested in the rich heritage and royal past of the region.

Indore is also famous for its vibrant food culture. Streets like Sarafa Bazaar and Chappan Dukan come alive at night with a variety of delicious street foods such as poha, jalebi, bhutte ka kees, and garadu. The city's cuisine is a major attraction for food lovers across the country

In addition, Indore is well-connected by road, rail, and air, making it an important gateway to central India. With its clean environment, growing infrastructure, and cultural richness, Indore continues to evolve as a smart and livable city, attracting residents, students, and businesses alike.
